This Wednesday the Washington Design Center Invites you to Snowing on 6: A Floor Fling!

Venture to the Washington Design Center for a 6th floor fling with a modern twist! Stroll through the Winter Wonderland and enjoy wine, cheese and displays of modern products and solutions from the finest showrooms in Washington, DC. RSVP are required to info@mokimedia.com

Holly Hunt, Suite 619, 4:15-4:25pm:

Holly Hunt is pleased to feature Sebastian Varney of the Carleton V textile line. Meet Sebastian to see the wonderful array of fabrics and wall coverings that Carleton V is so well known for. See more from Carlton V at www.carletonvlt.com

Warp & Weft, Suite 621, 4:40-4:50pm:

Join us for a presentation from David Rubin that focuses on modern/contemporary rug designs and trends used in residential and commercial interior spaces, and will feature a special multimedia segment on the GoodWeave™ certification program (www.goodweave.org). GoodWeave works to end illegal child labor in the carpet industry.

The Milano Group Inc., Suite 601, 5:05-5:15pm:

The Milano Group Inc. will have special guest, Interior Designer Christopher Boutlier, (www.boutlier.com) who will be discussing modern design.

Century Furniture, Suite 609, 5:30-5:40pm:

Century Furniture® will host The Noble Vine's Justin Connor (www.thenoblevine.com/), who will discuss "The Modern Wine Cellar." His talk will detail how the wine cellar has been transformed from a moldy underground storage area to a home centerpiece and entertainment space, focusing on design, composition and use. Century Furniture will also have Oscar de la Renta candles available for purchase.

LUXE Studio, Suite 610:

LUXE Studio will be showcasing ARMAN I jewelry. This beautiful jewelry will be available for purchase.

Farrow & Ball, Suite 622:

Farrow & Ball will host a viewing of the presentation boards that have been submitted for the DC Design House. Designer selections will be announced the second week in January. The Show House opens to the public in April and benefits Children's Hospital.

Parking: in the garage for $8.
