The Washington Design Center To Host American Design Day

The Washington Design Center will host an American Design Day, a design event debuting The MADE: In America "All American Room." The "All American Room" was created by Bielecky Brothers, Inc. and will be featured in the AmericanEye Showroom, Suite 511, July 14-31. The purpose of the "All American Room" is to foster an American design aesthetic and to inspire designers to create rooms that evoke classic American style.

The 2010 "All American Room" design team members include: James De Lorbe of De Lorbe, Manderlay & Wilde, Ltd.; Dale Denton of Julia Gray Ltd.; Eve Fay of Farrow & Ball; and Joseph Probus of Brunschwig & Fils/Hinson.
